The meeting was opened promptly at 2 o'clock by Elder Charles Hyde of Pioneer stake, who announced the singing of the hymn, "Earth With Her Ten Thousand Flowers," following the rendition of which Elder Sylvester Cannon of Pioneer stake gave the opening prayer. The neer stake gave the opening prayer. The hymn, "Zion Prospers, All Is Well," was then sung by the choir and Elder Heber J. Grant spoke for about fifteen minutes on the attitude of the prophet Joseph Sinith toward the events of the Civil war and contrasted his knowledge of the early events of the great rebellion with that of Henry Ward Beecher and Ralph Waldo Emerson, who were not able to tell of the coming of the great events even a few weeks before the gathering

There is a laxity even among Mormons in regard to speaking the truth and there is nothing more important than care in treating the reputation of a neighbor.

Apostle Roberts spoke of the church aws regarding chastity and read extracts from the laws regarding domestic relations. He said there had been considerable comment on the fact that the divine law follows the old law in the idea that "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord," and attention was called to the law of stewardship of he church, which is similar to the old law. Bishop Laurence Scanlan.

ATTITUDE ON MORALITY Bishop Laurence Scanian was the cerebrant of the 9 o'clock mass in St. Mary's cathedral yesterday morning, and delivered the sermon, taking for is theme, "I Beseech You as Strangers and Pilgrims." He said that according to the inspired word, all were strangers The address of *postle Brigham H. in this earth and that man's true home oral questions.

Rev. D. Slattery. Rev. W. K. Ryan preached from the gospel of the day, John 16:16-22, dwelling on the sorrows predicted by the Savior. "So also you now, indeed, have sorrow."

"Life is a pilgrimage, and in the journey to eternity the soul is imprissupplied and "Its wants are oned," he said. "Its wants are rarely supplied, and its aspirations are seldom realized. It grows impatient, sometimes disappointed. Such is life in its reality. On every side man is best with trials and approximations are self-interest. War Was Predicted.

The statement made by Beecher, the great preacher, Elder Grant said, a short time before the opening of the war, that the "talk was largely vaporings and that nothing would happen of a serious naher revelation while in companion of the war, that the revelation while in companion is life that the set with trials and crosses, which cause pain and sorrow. How consoling to the follower of Christ, those words addressed to the disciples in the gospel: But I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice; and your joy no man shall take from you.

"Sufferings of some kind which resent one side

pared with the glory that is to come.' Placed on one side of the scale, they are not of equal weight to that joy that shall be revealed when the true Christian soldier crosses the portals of death. There is no proportion between the sorrows one may have to endure and the 'joy' awaiting the just man. Therefore, there could be no compar-

"The present idea of the moral law of the Mormon church," said Apostle Roberts, "is not different from the moral law of God, as promulgated by the early Christian churches. It is simply a rehabilitation of the same moral law which had been taught for centuries."

Elder Roberts insisted that the world should know that the Mormon church held to those principles and that the early revelations of the Mormon church, when they were presented following the organization of the church in 1830, are the same as those on which the moral laws of the American people are founded.
